

Dots and Boxes

Players take turns joining two horizontal or vertical dots by a line. The player that draws a line that completes the fourth side of a square, wins that square and puts their initial in. They then have another go. When all the boxes have been taken, the winner is the one whose initial appears the most times!

